Texas Reach Out Rules and Regulations

Section I: General

It is your responsibility to read and abide by these rules and check for occasional revisions. All rules are posted in each house and are always available upon request. These rules and guidelines will be enforced by House Leaders and Texas Reach Out staff members. Rules are subject to change, and updates will be provided to you as they are finalized.

We are called to seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness (Matthew 6:33). We pursue a relationship with God through the practice of the spiritual disciplines of private and corporate prayer, Bible study, small group attendance, worship, practicing generosity, engaging in acts of service, and loving one another as Christ loved us. It is expected that participants and staff will actively pursue growth in their relationship with God.

As Christians, we believe we best honor Christ by relating well to one another through respect for each other. Each participant's behavior should be pleasing to the Lord. All participants are expected and encouraged to exercise personal self-discipline, restraint, and genuine kindness and respect toward one another as well as persons in authority. Participants are expected to speak in a wholesome manner and build each other up. Participants should maintain appropriateness at all times and model strong character and work ethic. Participants will respect one another as well as one another's property. Participants should show trustworthiness in their words and actions, understanding that they will be held accountable.

Social Media (like Facebook, Instagram, TikTok and Twitter) posts are a direct reflection of you and should be in line with the Christian values and behaviors we expect from residents of TROM. All social media posts must be family friendly. We encourage posts that are uplifting, motivational, and those that glorify God.

TROM prohibits social media posts that promote or support immoral actions. This includes posts that are sexually explicit, use excessive profanity, are racist, promote illegal activity, illicit drug use or reflect other actions or values that are not part of a Christian lifestyle. TROM also prohibits posts that are negative or belittling of Texas Reach Out, and other TROM residents.

Section II: Obligations and Responsibilities

As a participant of Texas Reach Out, you agree to:

- A. Attend a worship service at a local church every week. Participants not in church at some point during the week will go with TROM participants to Christian Life Austin Church. Verification of church attendance required.
- B. Participate in mandatory Bible Studies or group meetings (life skills, communication skills, job readiness training, etc.) hosted by Texas Reach Out every Tuesday and Thursday evening from 7:30-9:00 PM. For participants in active addiction recovery, one Bible Study per week may be substituted with an approved recovery group option (Celebrate Recovery, New Life Recovery, or AA/NA – a list of approved local recovery programs will be made available to all participants). These may be online or in-person, in-person is encouraged. Verification of attendance must be submitted to TROM staff for approval. Participants may only substitute meetings once they have lived at TROM for a minimum of six weeks. Attendance at these meetings is mandatory and supersedes all other obligations.
- C. Participate in a mentor/mentee relationship as assigned by your Program Manager.
- D. Participate in the upkeep of the house by completing house chores each week.
- E. Complete at least 8 hours of community service per month (mandatory). This is a way of giving back to your community and will help you mature in your Christian walk.

- F. Wait to buy a vehicle until you have been steadily employed for at least 60 days and are current with your license fees and other financial obligations. Vehicle ownership must be pre-approved by Texas Reach Out staff.
- G. Ensure that your vehicle is up-to-date with Texas laws, including registration, insurance, and inspection.
- H. Fraternization between male and female participants is prohibited. Sexual/Romantic relationships with any other participant or staff is prohibited, including same sex relationships. Violations will result in immediate removal.
- I. Conduct yourself in a way that always honors Christ by refraining from any sexually inappropriate behavior which includes sexual harassment, viewing pornography on any device, dressing inappropriately, or making unsolicited, unwanted, and otherwise inappropriate comments or advances to anyone in or out of the program, male or female of any age.
- J. Take all of your personal belongings with you when you move out. Texas Reach Out is not responsible for any personal belongings left over two weeks after termination of the license agreement (either due to successful graduation or violation of the rules).

Section III: House Management

Texas Reach Out participants are expected to respect their house members and follow democratic procedures to address any issues that arise. You are responsible to God, yourself, your fellow house members, and to Texas Reach Out staff members for your actions and conduct.

Each house has a House Leader, appointed by Texas Reach Out staff. House Leaders report directly to Texas Reach Out staff members. Any questions or concerns regarding other house members should be directed to the House Leader and a Texas Reach Out staff member who will assist you with issues regarding house rule violations, conflicts between house members, or the physical house. When available, the House Leader may have the option of a single small bedroom.

House meetings are held once a month and all house participants are required to attend. If a meeting interferes with a work, aftercare, worship, or personal/family emergency, the meeting may be missed with prior approval from a Texas Reach Out staff member. These meetings are not to be confused with the mandatory Bible Study/Group Meetings held every Tuesday and Thursday evening and may not conflict with any scheduled Texas Reach Out events.

Any house participant may contact a Texas Reach Out staff member to call a special or emergency meeting. Special meetings are to address specific needs that cannot be postponed until the monthly meeting and require 48 hours notice. Emergency meetings are to address a relapse situation, confrontation, or safety issue and may be called at any time. The House Leader and a Texas Reach Out staff member must be present at the meeting to determine a decision or action steps at the conclusion of the meeting.

Many infectious can be highly contagious. Infections such as influenza (flu), respiratory syncytial virus (RSV), Pneumonia or COVID-19 pose a serious risk to others, especially those with higher risk factors. You can still have one of these infections even with vaccination. If you become ill with these infections, contact your Program Manager immediately, and follow the guidelines for self isolation and masking.

Dispute Resolution. The unity of the houses is paramount. It is recognized, however, that disputes will arise. When a dispute arises between participants, they should first attempt to resolve it themselves using biblical principles and procedures (Matthew 5:18). Unresolved issues or complaints should be reported first to the House Leader and the Program Manager. Expect that the dispute resolution process may include a meeting with all parties involved facilitated by the Program Manager. If needed the President may be notified and become involved in the resolution process. A formal grievance process is also available.

Texas Reach Out Ministries - Aftercare Application

Any program or housing concerns should be discussed with the House Leader or your Program Manager. Any issues requiring repair or maintenance should be reported directly to your Program Manager. Putting off addressing the issue may lead to gossip or resentment, both of which are harmful to house unity, successful transition, and spiritual growth.

Specific House Rules:

- A. Respect the curfew. Sunday-Thursday is 11:00 PM nightly with lights out by midnight. For Friday-Saturday curfew is midnight with lights out by 1:00 AM. Be considerate of your roommate's schedule when following curfew.

Drug and alcohol tests (UA or hair follicle) will be administered by a Texas Reach Out staff member periodically and/or at random. Refusal to abide by this policy is reason for termination of the license agreement.

Under no circumstances may anyone who is under the influence of drugs or alcohol be allowed inside the house or on the property. This includes family and friends. Violation of this rule is considered serious and is probable cause for the termination of the license agreement.

If there is suspicion of relapse, report it immediately to a Texas Reach Out staff member. This is crucial to the safety and success of all participants in the home. Failure to report a known relapse is grounds for removal from the program.

Prescription Medication Policy:

Serious medical conditions and/or injuries must be brought to the attention of staff. Texas Reach Out must be made aware of any prescription taken by participants. Prescribed controlled substances such as narcotic pain relievers, benzodiazepines, and amphetamines must be approved by Texas Reach Out staff. These substances are not allowed in the home unless closely monitored by Texas Reach Out Staff, and must have a prescription bottle with your name, dosage, and quantity. If you fail a drug test for prescribed controlled substances but you have not made your program manager aware of these prescriptions, you may be asked to leave the program.

Section VII: Loss of Residence

The following actions and behaviors may lead to termination of the license agreement and result in the participant being asked to move out of the home.
